

goes digital youth exchange

Together with young people from the cultural center ALROWWAD in Palestine, produce your own documentary on climate change!

Are you looking for a new challenge? Are you good at writing, filming or do you simply have creative ideas?

We are looking for motivated young people aged 16-21 who would like to take part in an online exchange with a youth group from Palestine from September to December 2023.

The idea is to create an interesting digital project around the topics of climate change and environmental protection.
